Dear Gus:

Over the last year we have received the information we have in our file about the above-named individual. This has been most helpful to us, but we still need the final outcome of any legal action which may have taken place.

We must have the final conviction and sentencing, if this took place, for our file so that anyone in the future can refuse registration when an attempt is made.

Thank you for your help in completing this file.

Sincerely,

Paul Ernst, Director

Scout leader admits he molested a Cub

By JOSEPH T. HALLINAN
STAR STAFF WRITER

Indianapolis police arrested a Cub Scout leader Thursday on a charge of molesting a 10-year-old member of his Cub den.

Police said the man, ~~Richard E. Merila~~ 31, admitted fondling a 10-year old boy while the child was spending the night May 9 at Merila's home in the 200 block of North Walcott Street.

Detective Steven R. Guthier said Merila also admitted to molesting a 14-year-old Scout, but Guthier said he has not yet confirmed this with the alleged victim.

Merila was charged preliminarily with one count of child molesting, a Class C felony with a maximum sentence of eight years, and was held in lieu of $5,000 bail.

Guthier said Merila was in charge of a den of five Webelos scouts belonging to Pack 13, which is sponsored by East 10th Street United Methodist Church. Webelos are a rank in the Cub Scouts program held by some fourth- and fifth-graders.

Guthier said the boy told his mother about the incident and she called the child-abuse hotline. The case was then referred to the Police Department.

Guthier said he interviewed Merila Thursday morning after picking him up at a Near-East-side restaurant where Merila works as a dishwasher.

"He confessed to fondling the 10-year-old, plus he named another victim," Guthier said.

Merila has been associated with the Cub Scouts about five years, said A. John Bosio, an executive for Boy Scouts of America, Crossroads of America Council.

Bosio said that if Merila did admit to molesting a child, he would be removed from the organization.

"There's no question that if he did this, he's not the kind of person we want associated with the Boy Scouts of America," Bosio said.
